Kommandeur Alfred JOBS, who was head of the Legal Section (Referat Rechtswesen) in the Secretariat of the Soviet Sector police headquarters (Berlin), was dismissed from his position on charges that he had been a civil official with a responsible position during the Nazi regime. He was succeeded by Kommandeur Helmut CASIMIR, who comes from the Criminal Police headquarters, where he was in charge of the Legal Section. CASIMIR is being assisted by Polizeirat Josef ZUR, who was last in the Administrative Police.
